Štefan Szabó	Let's go to the forest!
Jana Dvořáčková	With nature to mutual understanding - Erasmus+ and Garden therapy at Foundation Seiler, Switzerland
Janka Horváth	Nature inspired Therapy – Preliminary results from a participatory research agenda setting in Hungary
Ajay Rastogi and Tanya Kim Grassley	“Naturalness Orientation” as a pathway to better health and happiness

Symposium 3 Another Decade of SHE: An Updated History of the Society for Human Ecology

Organizers: Richard J. Borden, Kenneth E. Hil and Robert Dyball	July 9 Room: Aud 001 (TA) 8.30-10.30
Richard J. Borden; Robert Dyball; Kenneth E. Hill; Blake Cass; Bronwyn Wilkes

Symposium 4.1 A European College of Human Ecology – New Directions in Higher Education

Organizer: Wolfgang Serbser	July 9 Room: Aud 001 (TA) 13.30-15.30
Harry Weekes	Field Notes from an Accidental Teacher: On Adolescent Education, Human Ecology, and the Future of Humanity
Ian Douglas	Teaching the human ecology of the urban environment
Jay Friedlander	Expanding the Bounds of Human Ecology: A Case Study
Andreas Nebelung

Symposium 4.2 A European College of Human Ecology – New Directions in Higher Education

Organizer: Wolfgang Serbser	July 9 Room: Aud 001 (TA) 16.00-18.00
Richard Borden	Experiments in Interdisciplinary Pedagogy: Building the Foundation for Human Ecology Education
Parto Teherani-Krönner	Agriculture and our Everyday Meal Culture
Markus Hofmann	The Good Road towards a Sustainable Mobility-Culture – Effective Transition path without shortcuts?
Wolfgang Serbser	The European College of Human Ecology Emmendingen – A Prospect of a Human Ecology Program for Agents of Transition

Symposium 5 Generating knowledge on networks in environmental governance

Organizers: Marion Glaser and Barbara Schröter	July 8 Room: Aud 002 (TA) 8.30-10.30
PD Marion Glaser and Barbara Schröter	Generating knowledge on networks in environmental governance
María Mancilla-García and Örjan Bodin	Networks and influence across forums: actors' strategies in water governance in Brazil
Eike Holzkämper	Empowering stakeholders through participatory network analysis: a Net-Map case study from Brazil
Theresa Schwenke	Social and social-ecological networks in coastal marine social ecological systems conservation management and governance – Where are we and what are the potentials?
Mira Freiermuth	The transfer of knowledge and the resulting power in Community supported Agriculture (CSA)
Marco Scotti, Daniel Filipe da Silva Pereira, Antonio Bodini	LevinsAnalysis: a package for loop analysis in R

Symposium 6 How and how not to achieve effective interdisciplinarity in environmental-change studies

Organizers: Bradley Walters and Andrew Vayda	July 8 Room: Aud 001 (TA) 16.00-18.00
--	---------------------------------------

Bradley B. Walters	Doing interdisciplinary environmental change research solo
Andrew P. Vayda and Timothy C. Jessup	Wildfire Research in Indonesia and Dubious Assumptions About Interdisciplinarity
Cecilie Friis and Jonas Østergaard Nielsen	Productive tensions: The potentials and challenges of the telecoupling framework in interdisciplinary human-environment systems research
Simon Pooley	Algorithms, anecdotes and conflicts over animals
Martin Lukas	Beyond the trap of disciplinary research and political framings: Integrating approaches, methods and scales in human-environment research

Symposium 7 Project of Atherosclerosis among Indigenous populations – PAI: Urbanization and Ecology of Health of Traditional Peoples

Organizers: Dinani Armstrong	July 8 Room: 0.05 (B1) 13.30-15.30
Anderson da Costa Armstrong	Cardiovascular Health of Indigenous Peoples
Pedro Patriota	Relation between Urbanization and Health of Traditional Peoples
Dayvison Ruan	Indigenous Peoples in urbanized areas and health problems
Thuanny Campos	Participation of Indigenous peoples in reseach on Human Health
Nayanne Salvioni	Results of a Research on Cardiovascular Health in Indigenous

Symposium 8 Environmental Health in Human Ecological Perspective

Organizers: Kazuhiko Moji and Chiho Watanabe	July 9 Room: 0.05 (B1) 8.30-10.30
Chiho Watanabe	Introduction: Planetary boundaries and health
Taro Yamauchi	Co-Creating the Sanitation Value Chain: Designing Sanitation Systems as Eco-Community-Value Systems
Masahiro Hashizume	Adaptation to Global warming observed as mortality response
Kyi Mar Wai	Environmental contamination by heavy metals and its impact on maternal and child health in Myanmar
Kazuhiko Moji	Trends of Environmental Health and Human Ecology in Japan

Symposium 9 Wet Ecologies: Politics, Science, and Water in the Anthropocene

Organizers: Irus Braverman and Jordan Besek	July 10 Room: 0.05 (B1) 8.30-10.30
Jordan Besek	Flying Fish and Mechanismic Explanation: Bringing Social Science and Biology Together on Shared Ground
Irus Braverman	Living on Coral Time: Debating Conservation in the Anthropocene
